▼ lol, "opsec is top priority" when you have to check the "I understand that the contents of my messages can theoretically be read by anyone with access to Win's database (staff or attackers), and that this is not the right platform for private discussions." box to send a dm

▼ It's probably just more effort than it's worth to make them really highly super-secure from everyone, including staff. Even then, that wouldn't stop someone from doing what op did and just sharing a screenshot anyway, if one of the people in the conversation decides to.

▼ I'm just a poor boy, I need no sympathy,
Because I'm easy come, easy go,
Little high, little low,
Any way the wind blows doesn't really matter to Me, to me

▼ I'm not criticizing you, I'm criticizing the guy talking about how good his opsec is when that's the disclaimer you have to agree to on every dm.

▼ Well, if people actually had balls like they used to, she would be tarred and feathered already. For any FBI agents listening, I am speaking hypothetically, because no one seems to currently have balls.

3 The funny thing is that I've hired a lot of people in programming and anyone who puts spaces inside brackets doesn't get hired.

1 He's foreign. EU or something with those spaces before exasperations.

All you have to do to bring them to their knees is get some HP brown sauce, rub it on your face and then they'll do anything you command. They'll even beg you to pee all over them. I'm not lying. Eurotrash is a real documentary.

4 Isn't that cute, the letter agencies are really scared and trying their best.

3 They arent sending their best. Everyone knows that this site is for venting, not actual organization. That doesnt happen on public internet forums.

1 But they really, REALLY want it to start happening.

The more they can pick off before hockey mask time, the better for them.

permalink parent save report block reply

▲ TakenusernameA 9 days ago +4 / -0

4 Exactly, which is why actual organization is so important. People will need to start with their local communities and militias, if they have them.

1 Already happening. The issue is that there are also traitors among us. So nobody is turning their back.

4 As long as the FBI are outnumbered, they wont do anything. Theres a reason why they always conduct raids in groups. Theyre cowards.

You need to spam more, like OP does. They just recognize the names from the dozens of posts per hour. Nothing badass about it.
